

FREEBOXING

a doodling adventure for one player, by ella & d

You're BROKE AS FUCK, but your DARLING loves a LITTLE TREAT.

For anyone else, this might be a problem. But not for you. After all, you've got a little LUCK on your side. Not like, that much LUCK. But probably enough to fish something cool out of that BOX full of FREE TRASH you saw on the side of the road a couple blocks away. So grab a couple d6s & get ready to roll.

If you're playing in SWEET MODE, grab 8d6. This means you'll have a little leeway when picking your gift. If you play in NASTY MODE, grab 6d6 & that's that. Pick a mode & stick to it. Roll all of your dice, & then set them aside showing the results you rolled. This is your WELLSPRING OF LUCK. You may not reroll these dice, they are set as they are, & each die in your WELLSPRING can only be used once. After that, they're used up. Gone. Donezo. Got that delicious luck juice squeezed out like a cold orange in a hot shower.

So first things first, you gotta wrack your smooth, little brain to remember what kinda gifts your DARLING likes. Look over the "Your Darling Desires Something..." table, & then look over your WELLSPRING. You can take any 2 dice from your WELLSPRING, add them together, & then use the number you've generated to determine what it is that your DARLING likes.

Once you know what you're looking for, you just gotta look for it. You start to dig through the FREE BOX, moving chipped plates and silverware to find that perfect something. Start with the TYPE of TREASURE table, use any 1 die from your WELLSPRING to determine which arrow to follow, then use another die to determine the TREASURE-IN-ITSELF. After getting the treasure in your hands, you can use your sharply-attuned senses to APPRAISE the TREASURE'S TINGLES. Using the same procedure as before, choose the TYPE of TINGLE & the TINGLE-IN-ITSELF.

Draw your TREASURE in your satchel on the back of this page, making sure to represent its TINGLES. Rate your TREASURE's thoughtfulness on a scale of 10 to 10, & then write a small explanation of the gift on the CONSPICUOUSLY STICKY NOTE you found in your pocket earlier.

Now all you gotta do is deliver the thing! So go on, get! Find your darling & give them your TREASURE drawing & the accompanying note.
